

NEWSLETTER

Alex Haunty's Theater & Arts Fund, Inc.

May 2016

2015 ANNUAL REPORT

www.alexhauntystheaterandartsfund.org

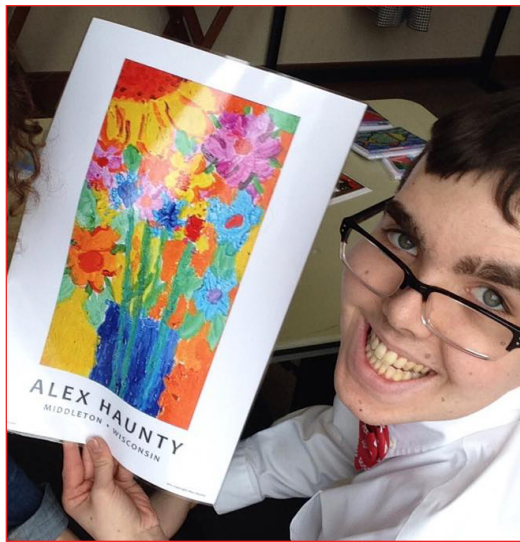

Welcome to AHTAFI

Hi, my name is Alex Haunty and I am the founder of Alex Haunty's Theater and Arts Fund, Inc. Welcome to my nonprofit newsletter. I hope you enjoy reading it.

For four years I have been using my proceeds of my art sales to take friends with disabilities to the Overture Center of the Arts. I have taken my friends to Beauty and the Beast, Mary Poppins, Sister Act and Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dream Coat.

Together with my family, we created a nonprofit organization in November 2014. This year we are taking 150 young adults with disabilities to The Lion King on three different nights.

On May 25, we are taking Middleton High School Transition students along with Advanced Employment clients and their support.

On June 1st, we're taking artists from Art Working along with Cutting Edge students from Edgewood College. On June 2nd, we are taking members of Living Our Visions, Inc. (LOV-DANE)

I would love to invite you to join in supporting me and my friends through my Alex Haunty's Theater and Arts fund at www.alexhauntystheaterandartsfund.org.

Alex makes plans to bring 150 friends with disabilities to The Lion King. Pictured here with Overture Center's Heather Harris, Sarah Knab, and President and CEO, Ted DeDee

Board of Directors

Mary Beth Haunty, R.N., BSN
President, Business Manager,
Inspiring Art by Alex

Thomas A. Haunty, CFP
Vice President and Treasurer,

Melissa Haunty, Member at Large,
AHTAFI Exec. Dir., Event Manager,
Stephen & Laurel Brown Foundation
(UpperHouse)

Gayle Reed, R.N. Ph.D.
Secretary, in Developmental Psychology

Bobbette Rose, Member at Large,
Creative Dir., Rose Design Studio
& Mixed Media Artist

Alex Haunty
Founder and Ex Officio member,
Artist, Inspiring Art by Alex

How you can be involved in this work

Alex Haunty's Theater & Arts Fund Inc. is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization and is seeking donations. To learn more about how you can be involved in this work, visit our website at:

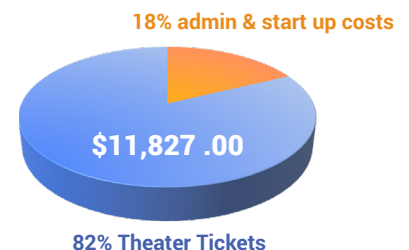

alexhauntystheaterandartsfund.org

REVENUE 2015

83% Private Donors & Foundation Gifts

EXPENSES 2015

Alex Haunty's Theater and Arts Fund, Inc. (AHTAFI) is a nonprofit organization that promotes access to the arts for people with disabilities through an integrated arts community model. AHTAFI provides special experiences of premier Broadway shows, and is moving to develop workshops and performance opportunities in art, music and theater where individuals with disabilities are able to shine.

Alex Haunty's Theater & Arts Fund, Inc.

THE STORY BEGINS

www.alexhauntystheaterandartsfund.org

2011

- June - Alex graduated from Middleton High School and received the "I See You Award" from the Zeiman Corporation because of his involvement in Best Buddies. With the award, Alex took his class of special education students and teachers to see Beauty and The Beast at the Overture Center for the Arts.

*Taking friends to Beauty and The Beast

- September - Alex started painting with Cathy Ostrom and painted "Flowerworks" for his mother.
- December - Middleton Times Tribune published an article about Alex starting his Theater Arts Fund.

*Flowerworks
by Alex Haunty*

2012

- December - Alex held his first art show at the Prairie Café, selling his art to take students from Best Buddies to a Broadway show at Overture Center for the Arts.

2013

- March - Alex took 60 students and peer buddies from Best Buddies at Middleton High School to see Mary Poppins at Overture Center for the Arts.
- April - Alex started his own art business InspiringArtByAlex.com.
- May - Alex received a commission from Overture Center for the Arts to do a painting for their 10th anniversary as a gift to say thank you to the Frautschi's for their gift to the community.
- August - Alex became a student in the Cutting Edge Program at Edgewood College.

*Best Buddies going to see Mary Poppins

*Taking Cutting Edge friends to Sister Act

2014

- January - Alex took 35 students/staff from the Cutting Edge Program to see Sister Act at Overture Center for the Arts.
- January - Alex was the focus of a front page article in the Wisconsin State Journal about his artwork and giving project.
- April - Alex received the 2014 Self Advocacy Award from The ARC of Dane County.
- September - Alex presented his "Take a Bow" painting, commissioned by Overture Center for the Arts to honor Jerome Frautschi and Pleasant Rowland. The painting now hangs in the administrative offices of Overture Center for the Arts.

Alex with his Take a Bow painting, commissioned by the Overture Center for the Arts

ABOUT ALEX

Artist! Speaker! Advocate! College Student! Employee! Alex Haunty is an artist with a big heart to love people, paint happiness and bring life to everyone around him. While living with a cognitive disability, Alex uses his unique challenges as a springboard to achieve his dreams and has become a source of inspiration for many. Known for his bright whimsical colors, Alex paints originals using acrylic on canvas that are then printed as giclee' prints, posters and cards. With the proceeds from his art sales, Alex donates a significant portion to his nonprofit, Alex Haunty's Theater and Arts Fund, Inc., to buy tickets for people with disabilities to see Broadway shows. In 2015, Alex received the Outstanding Young Philanthropist Award from the Greater Madison Chapter of the Association of Fundraising Professionals WI.

2014 (cont'd)

- September - Alex was featured in the 2014 Overture Center for the Arts Annual Report for being responsible for taking students with disabilities and caregivers to Broadway shows.
- November - Alex took 65 students with disabilities and mentors to Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat at Overture Center for the Arts.
- November - Alex Haunty's Theater and Arts Fund, Inc. became an official 501(c)(3) nonprofit.

*Taking friends and mentors to Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat

2015

- January - Alex Haunty's Theater and Arts Fund, Inc. (AHTAFI) held its first official board meeting with Alex as the founder and ex-officio board member.
- Spring - Alex received a commission from UW Health and American Family Children's Hospital to paint six large paintings.

Alex with Ted DeDee, President of the Overture Center for the Arts with the 2015 Outstanding Young Philanthropist award

- February - Alex was the keynote speaker at a Grafton, WI High School meeting for parents and community groups that help support students with special needs.
- March - Alex was a guest artist and speaker for Edgewood High School's Fine Arts Week.
- July - Alex spoke with Tom Haunty for North Star Resource Group's Summer Meetings, on Igniting PASSION through Attitude and Activity. Alex was chosen as the Most Valuable Presenter of the two day conference.
- October - Alex was the keynote speaker at the Wisconsin Transition Improvement Grant (TIG) 2015 Statewide Transition Academy Convention.
- November - Alex received the 2015 Outstanding Young Philanthropist award from the Greater Madison Chapter of the Association of Fundraising Professionals WI.

2016

- March - Alex was the keynote speaker at the Beaver Dam, WI Community Integration Conference.
- May and June 2016 Alex is taking 150 young adults with disabilities to The Lion King on three different nights at Overture Center for the Arts.

Alex also raises money for AHTAFI through additional art shows and speaking engagements each year. Alex commonly participates in these annual events:

June

Downtown Middleton Business Association event, Summer Kick Off, art exhibitor

July

Very Special Arts Booth at Madison's Art Fair On the Square, art exhibitor

August

Art in Mill Park in Paoli, WI, art exhibitor
Good Neighbor Fest in Middleton, art exhibitor

October

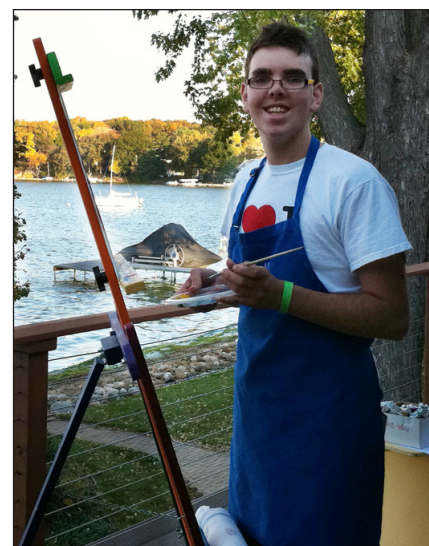

TIG Conference, (Transition Improvement Grant) Conference, art exhibitor

November

Wisconsin Self Determination Conference, Wisconsin Dells, WI, art exhibitor

December

Creating for Causes, Art Fundraiser for MOM's Food Pantry, art exhibitor

How you can be involved in this work

Alex Haunty's Theater & Arts Fund Inc. is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization and is seeking donations. To learn more about how you can be involved in this work, visit our website at:

alexhaunstheaterandartsfund.org

Alex Haunty's Theater and Arts Fund, Inc. (AHTAFI) is a non-profit organization that promotes access to the arts for people with disabilities through an integrated arts community model. AHTAFI provides special experiences of premier Broadway shows, and is moving to develop workshops and performance opportunities in art, music and theater where individuals with disabilities are able to shine.